

Mark Ringwood, Finance Director

Director of Roots Around the World – which promotes a better understanding of world cultures in and around West Sussex through concerts, workshops and the Dialog (sic) Project which is managed by his fellow Roots' Director and wife Sue. Mark's also a Director for the Commonwealth Cultural Arts Foundation, a member of the Managed Migration Taskforce, and was previously a member of the Live Music Forum. Previously the founder of Modal, Hi-There Arts Festival (Hayling Island), and a radio broadcaster on Spirit FM. He also represents more than 40 different artistes from as far afield as Japan, Australia, and Argentina for performances in Western Europe, and advises the Ulsan World Music Festival in South Korea, as well as being Chair for the Community Radio Licence bid for Chichester. Away from the 'arts' he enjoys a nice bottle of Chilean merlot, triking, and walking his dog Charlie.
